

FEBRUARY 7, 2018 TO FEBRUARY 8, 2018

WORLD WETLAND DAY CELEBRATION – SNC, CHENGANNUR

The Bhoomithrasena Club, Post Graduate Department of Chemistry and N S S Units jointly organized an awareness programme in connection with World Wetlands Day 2018. This programme intends to create an awareness among the youth and public on the importance of Wetlands for environment protection and the need to preserve them for a sustainable urban future.

Inauguration - Smt. K. K. Radhamma (President, Cheriyannadu Panchayat)

On 7th February 2018 a technical session was engaged by Dr. Manulal P Ram, Research Officer, Kerala State Higher Education Council, Thiruvananthapuram. At 2.00 p.m. Essay Competition was conducted on the topic “Wetlands for a Sustainable Urban Future”.

Technical Session by Dr. Manulal P Ram

On February 8, 2018, Film Director Prof. Madhu Iravankara took Technical Session on the topic “Revival of Rivers for Sustainable Future”. After tea break Film ‘Punarjani’ was screened in the College Auditorium. It tells the story of the rebirth of a river in Attappady. In the afternoon the celebration concluded with valedictory function and prize distribution.

FEBRUARY 2, 2018 – WORLD WETLANDS DAY CELEBRATION

Dr. V. Shree Ranjini, FIC Bhoomithrasena Club and three students has participated in the Training Programme conducted as part of the World Wetlands Day Celebrations – 2018, organized by Directorate of Environment and Climate Change, Govt. of Kerala, held at VJT Hall, Thiruvananthapuram

Smt. Padma Mahanti, IFS , Director – Welcome speech

Our student participants